Brand Equity

Brand equity comprises Familiarity, Regard, Meaning, and Uniqueness KPIs. A brand's Familiarity and Regard represent consumers' attitude toward the brand Today, which is a lagging indicator of brand equity. Meaning and Uniqueness tell us about the potential the brand has Tomorrow, which is a leading indicator of brand equity. We measure your brand equity with the BERA score.

BERA Score	Today	Familiarity Regard
	Tomorrow	Meaningful Uniqueness
